GOWANS'S ART BOOKS

Dec. 31st, 1912

This series is now well-known all over the world, and the publishers ask with confidence for the continued support of the undertaking by lovers of art. It is their hope to be able to cover the whole field of classic painting by including all important artists who were born before the year 1800, and the preparation of new volumes is being carried on steadily and systematically with this end in view.

As new editions of earlier volumes are called for, improvements are made when considered advisable; newly discovered pictures are inserted, and opportunity is taken to discard inferior pictures if others of superior merit are found to be obtainable.

Each volume contains sixty reproductions of photographs from the original paintings, and the series is indispensable to students, as many of the reproductions are unobtainable elsewhere, having been made from pictures not previously reproduced.

Volumes in preparation are:—

47. THE MASTERPIECES OF INGRES
51 THE MASTERPIECES OF NATTIER
52. THE MASTERPIECES OF LAWRENCE
53. THE MASTERPIECES OF PESELLINO, BALDOVINETTI, VERROCCHIO AND ROSSELLI

THE CAVIARE SERIES, No. 1.

This new series will contain books that have become standard in the literatures of foreign countries. It opens with

"SEVEN LEGENDS"

FROM THE GERMAN OF

GOTTFRIED KELLER.

This is an extremely original, perhaps a unique book. It is translated for the first time into English, though it has passed through fifty editions in Germany.

The Athenæum for July 8th, 1911, says:

"Messrs. Gowans & Gray, whose enterprise has already laid many readers with slender purses under an obligation, happily inaugurate their 'Caviare Series' of foreign masterpieces with Seven Legends, a translation of Gottfried Keller's brilliant little tour de force. The tales, which are freely and playfully adapted from mediæval legends of the saints, preserve the charm and naïveté of their models, and exhibit the author at his best."

Price: Cloth boards 2/6 net (Post free, 2/9).

GOWANS'S COSMOPOLITAN LIBRARY

Small Fcap. 8vo. Cloth, gilt top. 1s net per volume

THIS series will be confined to Standard Works of our own or of other literatures. The publishers will endeavour to avoid the beaten track as much as possible, and in particular will try to lay before the discriminating reader translations of a few of the thousands of foreign books which only need to be translated to become favourites in this country as well as in their own.

The first four volumes will be:—

1. THE TWELVE BEST SHORT STORIES IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE. Selected by ADAM L. GOWANS.
2. FAMOUS GHOST-STORIES BY ENGLISH AUTHORS. Selected by ADAM L. GOWANS from the best writers in the language.
3. CHIUSHINGURA, OR THE LOYAL LEAGUE. A famous Japanese Romance. Translated by F. VICTOR DICKINS, C.B.
4. A CAPTIVE OF LOVE. A novel from the original of Bakin, the greatest novelist of Japan.

The publishers beg to draw attention to the following facts:—

1. The type of the books in this series will be set by hand and the irregular alignment which makes the reading of some cheap series so distressing to the eye will thus be avoided.

2. The paper will be of good quality and "free from wood."

3. The books will be strongly, not flimsily, bound in Winterbottom's extra cloth.

The publishers make no announcement at present with regard to the issue of future volumes, which will be issued at such irregular intervals as may be found convenient.

BETWEEN HEAVEN AND EARTH

By OTTO LUDWIG

Translated from the German by William Metcalfe

This great novel is recognized by all German critics to be one of the Classics of the language.

Mr. Eden Phillpotts kindly allows us to quote from two private letters regarding our translation. He says in the first:

> "This is a noble book and ought surely to make something of a sensation. . . I have rarely been so much impressed as by this masterpiece."

And in the second:

> "I entertain the most profound admiration for this noble work and shall sing its praises very heartily. May it be a great and far reaching success."

Crown 8vo. Cloth, 3s. 6d. net. Postage 4d.

THE INVADED SOLITUDE

By MAGDALEN RAWLINS

This is the story of an episode in a lonely life, when its solitude was invaded by love.

The Bookman says:

> "Mrs. Rawlins attempts the most painful, the most difficult task of vivisection. One by one, these pages, these half-pages (most of the pieces are scarcely more than a few sentences) build up a ruthless exposition of a woman's heart. The very nerves seem to have learnt the use of words. We think not of literature but of life, and are grateful for the momentary relief of those occasional uncertain adjectives. That gratitude is the proof of Mrs. Rawlins's success."
